To the Shareholders,

Dear Sir or Madam,

Introduction

At the annual general meeting of K. Wah International Holdings Limited ("Company") held today, it was resolved that a final dividend for the year ended 31 December 2006 ("Final Dividend") of HK$0.025 per issued share of the Company ("Share") be paid to shareholders whose names appear on the registers of members at the close of the business on 20 June 2007. It was also resolved that the Final Dividend should be satisfied by way of scrip dividend by an allotment of new Shares credited as fully paid in accordance with the Memorandum of Association and Bye-laws of the Company and that shareholders may elect to receive cash wholly or partly in lieu of the scrip dividend. The latest date on which transfers were accepted for registration in order to qualify for the Final Dividend was 12 June 2007.

Particulars of the Final Dividend

Shareholders have the following choices in respect of the Final Dividend:

- (i) an allotment of new Shares ("New Shares") credited as fully paid and having an aggregate discounted market value (as defined below) equal to the total amount of Final Dividend which shareholders could elect to receive in cash in respect of HK$0.025 per Share, subject to any fractional entitlement being disregarded as mentioned below; or
- (ii) Final Dividend of HK$0.025 per Share in cash; or
- (iii) partly New Shares and partly cash.

For the purpose of calculating the number of New Shares to be allotted, the discounted market value ("Discounted Market Value") of a New Share means the average of the closing prices of one Share on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Stock Exchange") for the five trading days from 21 June 2007 to 27 June 2007 (both days inclusive), less 5% discount, rounding down such figure to four decimal places. It will not be possible to determine until the close of business on 27 June 2007 the exact number of New Shares to which a shareholder, electing to receive New Shares, will be entitled. The Company will make a press notification, and information about the Discounted Market Value for the purpose of calculating the number of New Shares to be allotted by way of scrip dividend will be made available on the websites of the Company and the Stock Exchange on 28 June 2007. The last day on which shareholders will be entitled to make their choices of the above alternatives is 6 July 2007.

Accordingly, the number of New Shares which shareholders will receive, in respect of the existing Shares registered in their names as at 20 June 2007 and for which elections to receive the Final Dividend in cash are not lodged with the Company's branch share registrars in Hong Kong on or before 6 July 2007, will be calculated as follows:

$$\text{Number of New Shares to be received} = \frac{\text{Number of existing Shares held on 20 June 2007 for which cash election is not made}}{\text{Discounted Market Value}} \times \text{HK$0.025}$$

The New Shares to be issued pursuant to the scrip dividend arrangements will rank pari passu in all respects with the existing issued Shares, except for the Final Dividend and will rank in full for all future dividends and distributions which may be declared, made or paid. No shareholder will be entitled to be issued any fraction of a Share under the scrip dividend arrangements. Fractional entitlements to Shares will be disregarded and the benefit thereof will accrue to the Company.

Advantage of the Scrip Dividend

The scrip dividend will enable shareholders to increase their holdings of Shares without incurring dealing costs or stamp duty. The Company will also benefit because, to the extent that shareholders elect to receive New Shares, in whole or in part, such cash as would otherwise have been paid to shareholders will be retained for use as working capital by the Company.

Effect of the Scrip Dividend

If elections to receive the Final Dividend in cash were received in respect of all the existing Shares registered as at 20 June 2007, the total cash dividend payable by the Company would be approximately HK$60,870,000.

Shareholders of the Company should note that the scrip dividend may give rise to notification requirements under the Securities and Futures Ordinance for those shareholders who may have notifiable interests in the Company. Shareholders of the Company who are in any doubt as to how these provisions may affect them are recommended to seek their own professional advices.

The Company, being an exempted company incorporated in Bermuda, has been designated as non-resident for Bermuda exchange control purposes and has been granted an assurance by the Minister of Finance in Bermuda under the Exempted Undertakings Tax Protection Act 1966. Accordingly, in the event of there being enacted in Bermuda any legislation imposing tax computed on profits or income, or computed on any capital asset, gain or appreciation, or any tax in the nature of estate duty or inheritance tax, then the imposition of any such tax shall not be applicable to the Company or any of its operations or Shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company provided that such assurance shall not be construed as to

- (i) prevent the application of any such tax or duty to such persons as are ordinarily resident in Bermuda;
- (ii) prevent the application of any tax payable in accordance with the provisions of the Land Tax Act, 1967 or otherwise payable in relation to the land leased to the Company.

Form of Election

Enclosed is a Form of Election. No action is required if you wish the Final Dividend which you are entitled to receive to be wholly satisfied by an allotment of New Shares on the abovementioned basis. Otherwise, if you wish to receive such dividend wholly in cash in lieu of New Shares, or partly in cash with the balance satisfied by an allotment of New Shares, you must complete the enclosed Form of Election in accordance with the instructions printed thereon and lodge it with the Company's Branch Share Registrars in Hong Kong, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, at Rooms 1806-1807, 18th Floor, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong not later than 4:30 p.m. on 6 July 2007. If you have signed the Form of Election but do not specify the number of Shares in respect of which you wish to receive the dividend in cash or, if you elect to receive the dividend in cash in respect of a greater number of Shares than your registered holding, then in either case you will be deemed to have exercised your election to receive the dividend in cash in lieu of New Shares in respect of all the Shares registered in your name(s). No acknowledgement of receipt of Form of Election will be issued. The Form of Election also enables you to elect to receive all future dividends wholly in cash in lieu of New Shares until notice in writing to cancel such election is received by the Branch Share Registrars of the Company. Permanent elections cannot be made in respect of part of your registered holding.

The Form of Election has not been sent to shareholders who have previously made a permanent election to receive all future dividends wholly in cash. These shareholders will receive cash in lieu of scrip dividend for all the Shares for the time being registered in their names, without having to complete any further Form of Election. Any shareholder wishing to change these existing permanent elections should contact the Company's Branch Share Registrars in Hong Kong, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, before 4:30 p.m. on 6 July 2007.

Shareholders Resident Outside Hong Kong

All shareholders resident outside Hong Kong should consult their bankers or other professional advisers as to whether any governmental or other consents are required or other formalities need to be observed to enable them to receive Shares in satisfaction of the Final Dividend. No person receiving in any territory outside Hong Kong a copy of this circular and/or a Form of Election may treat the same as an invitation to him unless in the relevant territory such invitation could lawfully be made to him without having to comply with any unfulfilled registration or other legal requirements.

This circular and Form of Election will not be registered in Hong Kong or any other jurisdiction. The Shares have not been registered under the applicable securities legislation of any jurisdictions other than Hong Kong. The Company has made enquiries with legal advisers where its overseas shareholders are based regarding legal restrictions and regulatory requirements on participation of shareholders resident outside Hong Kong in the scrip dividend arrangements as required by Rule 13.36(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange. Since registration or filing or other procedures will need to be carried out to comply with the relevant securities legislations of Australia, Canada, Liberia, Singapore, the United Kingdom and the United States of America ("Excluded Jurisdictions") and/or the costs of complying with the requirements in each Excluded Jurisdiction will exceed materially any potential benefit to the Company of doing so, the Directors consider that it would be necessary and expedient to exclude shareholders with registered addresses in the Excluded Jurisdictions ("Excluded Shareholders") from the scrip dividend arrangements as it would be impractical to comply with such procedures in these countries given the small shareholder base. Accordingly, Form of Election will not be sent to the Excluded Shareholders and they will only receive this circular for information. Excluded Shareholders will receive their dividend wholly in cash.

Apart from the Excluded Shareholders, according to the Company's registers of members, there are some other shareholders whose registered addresses are outside Hong Kong. They are allowed to participate in the scrip dividend arrangements. It is the responsibility of any shareholders outside Hong Kong who wishes to receive New Shares under the scrip dividend arrangements to comply with the laws of the relevant jurisdictions including procedures or any other similar formalities. It is also the responsibility of any shareholders outside Hong Kong who receive New Shares in lieu of the cash dividend must also comply with any restrictions on the resale of the Shares which may apply outside Hong Kong.

Listing and Dealings

Shares issued by the Company have been admitted as eligible securities for deposit and settlement in the Central Clearing and Settlement System established and operated by Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited. Dealings in the Shares may be settled through the Central Clearing and Settlement System. Investors should seek the advice of their stockbrokers or other professional advisers for details of these settlement arrangements and how such arrangements will affect their rights and interests.

The Shares are listed and dealt in on the Stock Exchange. On no other stock exchanges are any part of the Shares listed or dealt in or on which listing or permission to deal is being or is proposed to be sought. There are convertible bonds listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, which are convertible into Shares, as referred to in the Company's announcement dated 23 March 2004. Application has been made to the Stock Exchange for the listing of and permission to deal in the New Shares to be issued pursuant to the scrip dividend arrangements. It is expected that share certificates in respect of such Shares and dividend warrants will be posted at the risk of those entitled thereto on 20 July 2007 and dealings in such Shares will commence on 23 July 2007. In the unlikely event that the New Shares are not admitted to listing by the Stock Exchange before 20 July 2007, the Forms of Election will be disregarded and the full cash dividend will be paid to the entitled shareholders according to their registered shareholdings.

Recommendation and Advice

It is the shareholders' responsibility to decide in this regard whether or not to exercise their rights to receive cash in lieu of the scrip dividend. Whether or not it is to the shareholders' advantages to receive cash or New Shares, in whole or in part, depends upon their own individual circumstances. The effect on the tax position of any shareholder will depend on that shareholder's particular circumstances. If you are in any doubt as to what to do, you should consult your professional advisers. Shareholders who are trustees are recommended to take professional advice as to whether the choice to receive cash or New Shares is within their powers and as to its effect having regard to the terms of the relevant trust instrument.

Yours faithfully,
Dr. Che-woo Lui
Chairman
