VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT STRATEGIC COOPERATION AGREEMENT WITH TENCENT CLOUD

This announcement is voluntarily made by AsiaInfo Technologies Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) to inform the shareholders (the “Shareholders”) and potential investors of the Company about the latest business development of the Group.

The board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of the Company is pleased to announce that on 7 May 2021, AsiaInfo Technologies (China), Inc (a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company) entered into a strategic cooperation agreement with Tencent Cloud Computing (Beijing) Company Limited (騰訊雲計算(北京)有限責任公司) (“Tencent Cloud”) in Beijing. Pursuant to the strategic cooperation agreement, the Group and Tencent Cloud will combine their portfolios of advantage products and technical competence to facilitate mutual empowerment and engage in intensive cooperation in areas such as domestic software production, digital operation (DSaaS), cloud business in vertical industries, artificial intelligence, security services, operation of middle office platform capacities, smart city operations, expansion in the operators’ industry and talent empowerment and training for the purpose of developing competitive integrated products and innovative solutions to jointly expand the market coverage.

Tencent Cloud is a distinguished cloud computing service provider which supplies a diverse range of cloud products and services to a number of government authorities, corporate organisations and individual customers both domestically and abroad. With outstanding scientific and technological competence, it has created a wide array of industry solutions and built an open and win-win cloud ecosystem to promote Internet-based development of industries and help realise digital upgrading for all sectors and industries. The Group is a leading provider of software products, solutions and services in China. Leveraging its strong capabilities in product, service, operation and integration, the Group focuses on, among others, the telecommunications, finance, energy, transportation, government and postal sectors in a bid to develop new customers, start up new businesses, explore new models and provide assistance to enterprises in digital transformation on an ongoing basis.

The Board believes that entering into the strategic cooperation agreement with Tencent Cloud will provide opportunities for the Group to expand its customer base in vertical sectors and develop new businesses. It is expected that the establishment of a mutually beneficial cooperative relationship will create more potential growth opportunities, which is in line with the interest of the Group and the Shareholders as a whole.

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company should exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.
