- 4.3 The Remuneration Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources to perform its duties.

5. Duties

- 5.1 The duties of the Remuneration Committee shall be:
- (a) to make recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all directors and senior management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy with reference to remuneration paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities and employment conditions of other positions of the Company and its subsidiaries;
 - (b) to formulate, review and approve key performance indicators (KPI) and remuneration proposals for senior management (i.e. Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and senior management (with position higher than senior vice president) of the Company) with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives;
 - (c) to decide on the remuneration packages of all executive directors of the Company and make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of all non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors of the Company, which shall include, but not limited to, benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments (including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their office or appointment), share options and restricted share units, and to ensure that none of the directors of the Company or any of their associates participate in determining their own remuneration;
 - (d) to review and approve compensation payable to executive directors and senior management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that it is consistent with contractual terms and is not excessive;

- (e) to review the performance of executive directors, assess whether executive directors have fulfilled their diligence obligations, ensure that executive directors effectively control and supervise the operations and management of the Company and safeguard the overall interests of all shareholders and the Company, and to review and approve compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of directors for misconduct to ensure that they are consistent with contractual terms and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- (f) where the service contract of a director or proposed director of the Company or its subsidiaries is required to be approved by the shareholders of the Company pursuant to Rule 13.68 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”), the Remuneration Committee (or an independent board committee) shall form a view in respect of such service contract and advise shareholders (other than shareholders who are directors with a material interest in such service contract and their associates) as to whether the terms are fair and reasonable, advise whether such service contract is in the overall interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and advise shareholders on how to vote;
- (g) to oversee the Company to set up incentive and performance evaluation procedures, formulate employee incentive plans, and make recommendations to the Board and general shareholders’ meeting; and
- (h) to consider all other matters as referred to the Committee by the Board.

5.2 In carrying out its duties under the scope of the terms of reference, the Remuneration Committee shall:

- (a) provide the remuneration packages sufficient to attract and retain directors to run the Company successfully without paying more than is necessary;
- (b) be sensitive to the wider scene, including pay and employment conditions elsewhere, especially when determining annual salary increases;
- (c) ensure that the performance-related elements of remuneration form a significant proportion of the total remuneration package of executive directors of the Company and shall be designed to align their interest with those of shareholders and to give these directors keen incentives to perform at the highest levels; and
- (d) ensure that share options (if any) are offered in accordance with the Listing Rules.

- 8.3 The Company shall disclose details of any remuneration payable to members of senior management at least by band, or even on an individual and named basis as a best practice, in its annual reports with the endorsement of the Remuneration Committee.
