Article 3.07 Under the plan of the Company which has been approved by the securities authority of the State Council for issuing foreign shares listed overseas and the domestic shares, the Board of Directors of the Company is authorized to implement the arrangement for separate issues.

Within 15 months from the date of approval by the China Securities Regulatory Commission, the Company is authorized to implement separately according to the plan of issuing foreign shares listed overseas and the plan of issuing domestic shares separately as provided in the preceding clause.

(Mandatory Provision 17)

Article 3.08 Within the total number of shares confirmed in the issue plan of the Company, the required capital shall be fully raised in one issue for the overseas listed foreign shares and the domestic shares separately. In the event of failure to fully raise the required capital in one issue under exceptional circumstances, several issues are also permitted upon approval by the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

(Mandatory Provision 18)

Article 3.09 Upon completion of turning the capital reserve into the increased share capital of the Company, the registered capital of the Company shall not be less than RMB123,314,400. The actual registered capital of the Company shall be subject to the amount after turning the capital reserve into the increased share capital. Upon completion of turning the capital reserve into the increased share capital, the Company shall confirm the actual amount of the registered capital based on the capital verification report issued by the certified public accountant, and apply to the original registration authority for registration of the alteration of the registered capital.

(Mandatory Provision 19)

Article 3.10 Based on the requirements for operation and development, the Company may approve the capital increase according to relevant stipulations of the Articles of Association.

The Company may increase capital by way of the following:

- (1) by issuing new shares to non-specified investors to raise fund;
- (2) by issuing new shares to existing shareholders by means of placement;
- (3) by distributing new shares to existing shareholders;
- (4) by other means permitted by the laws and administrative regulations.

After issuing new shares to increase the capital of the Company as approved by the Articles of Association, the Company shall proceed with the formalities according to the procedure required by the relevant laws and administrative regulations in China as well as the registration of alteration with the company registration authority, and make the relevant announcement.

(Mandatory Provision 20)

Article 3.11 Except when required otherwise by the laws and administrative regulations, the shares of the Company may be transferred freely without any lien attached.

(Mandatory Provision 21, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 1(2) of Appendix 3)

Article 3.12 Upon transfer of the shares of the Company, the name of the transferee shall be recorded in the share register and become the shareholder of such shares.

(Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 3.13 As stipulated by Article 6.04 of the Articles of Association, the issue or transfer of all overseas listed foreign shares which are listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong shall be recorded in the share register for overseas listed foreign shares of the Company placed in Hong Kong.

(Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 3.14 Any shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares which are listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong shall make use of the common written transfer documents prevailing in Hong Kong or any other written transfer instrument accepted by the Board of Directors of the Company to transfer all or a part of the shares held. The transfer documents shall be signed by the transferor and the transferee or by means of machine printed signature.

(Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

In the event that the shareholder is an authorized clearing house or its nominee (hereinafter referred to as the “recognized clearing house”) defined by Hong Kong laws, the transfer form may be signed by hand or by means of machine printed signature.

(Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

All transfer instruments shall be placed at the legal address of the Company or any other place which the Board of Directors may specify from time to time.

Article 3.15 The Company shall ensure that the share certificates of all overseas listed foreign shares contain the following terms, and instruct or procure its share registrar to refuse to register any persons as the shareholder of the subscribed, purchased or transferred shares of the Company unless and until the said person has presented to the share registrar the letter of transfer related to such shares duly signed and the share certificate sample attached with the following terms or terms of similar meaning agreed by the Board of Directors:

- (1) The purchaser gives consent to the Company and the shareholders of the Company, and the Company also gives consent to its shareholders to observe and comply with the Company Law and other relevant laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (2) The purchaser gives consent to the Company, and the shareholders, directors, supervisors and officers of the Company, and the Company representing itself and its shareholders, directors, supervisors and officers gives consent to its shareholders to proceed with the arbitration according to the Articles of Association for all disputes and claims arising from the Articles of Association, or the disputes and claims arising from any rights or obligations attached to or required by the Company Law, and other relevant laws and administrative regulations, and to proceed with the arbitration and the purchaser shall be deemed as having authorized the arbitration tribunal to proceed with open hearing and announce the outcome to the public, and the award of arbitration shall be final;
- (3) The purchaser and the Company and the shareholders of the Company give consent that the shares of the Company shall be freely transferrable by the shareholders;

- (4) The purchaser authorizes the Company to represent the purchaser to conclude a contract with the directors and officers of the Company that the directors and officers shall undertake to comply with their responsibilities to the shareholders as stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 3.16 Regarding the exercise of the power to cease sending dividend warrants by post, if such dividend warrants have been left uncashed, then such power shall be exercised only after such dividends warrants have been left uncashed for two consecutive times. However, such power may also be exercised on the first occasion on which such warrants are undelivered and returned.

The Company shall be entitled to sell the shares of a shareholder who is untraceable and retain the proceeds, if:

- (1) during a period of twelve years, at least three dividends in respect of the shares in question have become payable and no dividend during that period has been claimed by the shareholder; and
- (2) on expiry of the period of twelve years, the Company, having been approved by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council, gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an announcement published in the newspapers and notifies the said authority and the relevant overseas securities regulatory authority of such intention.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 13(1) & (2) of Appendix 3)

Chapter 4 Capital Reduction and Share Repurchase

Article 4.01 As prescribed by the Articles of Association, the Company may decrease its registered capital.

(Mandatory Provision 22)

Article 4.02 For the purpose of decreasing its registered capital, the Company shall compile the balance sheet and the property inventory.

The Company shall inform the creditors within ten days from the date of adopting the resolution of reducing the registered capital and publish the announcement at least three times in the newspaper within thirty days. The creditors shall, within thirty days from the date of receiving the notice, and those having not received the notice shall, within ninety days from the date of the first announcement, be entitled to request the Company to reimburse the debts or provide corresponding guarantee for reimbursement of the debts.

The registered capital of the Company shall not be less than the minimum authorized capital after the capital reduction.

(Mandatory Provision 23, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 7(1) of Appendix 3)

Article 4.03 Under the following circumstances, the Company shall, by way of the procedure prescribed by the Articles of Association, report to the relevant authority in China for approval to repurchase its shares in issue:

- (1) Share cancellation for the purpose of reducing the capital of the Company;
- (2) Merger with the other company holding the shares of the Company;
- (3) Other circumstances permitted by the laws or administrative regulations.

(Mandatory Provision 24)

Article 4.04 The Company may, with the approval of the relevant authorities in China for repurchasing its shares, conduct the repurchase in one of the following ways:

- (1) The pro rata general offer of repurchase to all of its shareholders;
- (2) Share repurchase through public dealing on the stock exchange;
- (3) Repurchase by agreement other than on the stock exchange.

(Mandatory Provision 25)

Article 4.05 In respect of the Company's entitlement to repurchase the redeemable shares of the Company:

- (1) If the shares are repurchased neither in the market nor by tender, the price shall not exceed a maximum amount;

(2) In case of repurchase by tender, the same tender shall be proposed to all the shareholders.

(Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 8(1) & (2) of Appendix 3)

Article 4.06 For share repurchase by way of agreement other than via the stock exchange, the Company shall obtain the approval in the general meeting of shareholders as prescribed by the Articles of Association in advance. Having been approved in the general meeting of shareholders in the same manner, the Company may discharge or alter the contract already concluded by the foregoing means, or waive any of its rights in the contract.

The contract for share repurchase mentioned in the preceding clause shall include (but not limited to) the agreement of giving consent to undertake the obligation of share repurchase and obtain the right of share repurchase.

The Company shall not transfer the contract for repurchasing its shares or any of the rights prescribed by the contract.

(Mandatory Provision 26)

Article 4.07 After the repurchase of shares by the Company according to the laws, the Company shall cancel the shares repurchased within the period prescribed by laws and administrative regulations and shall apply to the original company registration authority for registration of alteration of its registered capital.

The total par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the registered share capital of the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 27)

Article 4.08 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it shall comply with the following provisions in relation to the repurchase of its shares in issue:

(1) Where the Company repurchases shares at par value, the payment shall be made out of the book surplus on the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of the new shares issued for such purpose;

(2) Where the Company repurchases its shares at a premium to its par value, the payment up to the par value may be made out of the book surplus on the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of the new shares issued for such purpose. The payment for the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:

1. Where the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, the payment shall be made out of the book surplus on the distributable profits of the Company;
 2. Where the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, the payment shall be made out of the book surplus on the distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of the new shares issued for such purpose, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the total amount of premium received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the book value of the capital reserve account (including the premium on the new issue) of the Company at the time of the repurchase;
- (3) The Company shall make the following payment out of the distributable profits of the Company:
1. For the acquisition of the right to repurchase its shares;
 2. For the alternation of the contract for the repurchase of its shares;
 3. For the release of its obligations under the contract for the repurchase;
- (4) After the total par value of the cancelled shares has been deducted from the registered capital of the Company in accordance with relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for the payment of the par value of shares repurchased shall be credited to the capital reserve account of the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 28)

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for the Purchase of Company Shares

Article 5.01 The Company or its subsidiary shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who is purchasing or proposes to purchase the shares of the Company. The foregoing purchaser of the shares of the Company shall include the person who assumes obligations directly or indirectly as a result of purchasing the shares of the Company.

The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to the foregoing obligor for the purpose of reducing or discharging his obligations.

This article shall not apply to the circumstances mentioned in Article 5.03 of this chapter.

(Mandatory Provision 29)

Article 5.02 The financial assistance mentioned in this chapter shall include (but not limited to) the following means:

- (1) The gift;
- (2) The guarantee (including the assumption of liability or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor), compensation (other than the compensation caused by its own default of the Company), or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) The provision of loan or entering into any contracts under which the obligations of the Company shall be fulfilled before the obligations of the other party, as well as the change of the parties to, or the assignment of rights under such loan or contract;
- (4) Any other form of financial assistance provided by the Company in the event of insolvency, having no net assets or being likely to cause its net assets to be reduced significantly.

The assumption of obligations mentioned in this chapter shall include the assumption of obligations by the obligor resulting from entering into a contract or making an arrangement (no matter whether the contract or the arrangement is enforceable, and whether assumed independently by the obligor or jointly with others) or from the change of the obligor's financial position by any other means.

(Mandatory Provision 30)

Article 5.03 The following actions shall not be deemed to be prohibited by Article 5.01 of this chapter:

- (1) The financial assistance is provided by the Company in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for purchasing the shares of the Company, or the said financial assistance is an incidental part of a general plan of the Company;

- (2) The lawful distribution of the assets of the Company by way of dividend;
- (3) The distribution of share dividends in the form of shares;
- (4) The reduction of registered capital, repurchase of shares or reorganization of the equity structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (5) The provision of loans by the Company within its scope of operation for its ordinary business activities (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the said financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits);
- (6) The contribution made by the Company to the employee share ownership plan (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the said financial assistance is provided out of the distributable profits).

(Mandatory Provision 31)

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Share Register

Article 6.01 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

The share certificates of the Company shall set out the following major items:

- (1) Name of the Company;
- (2) The incorporation date of the Company;
- (3) The class, par value and number of shares represented by the share certificates;
- (4) The stock code;
- (5) Other matters which shall be set out as required by the Company Law and Special Regulations; and
- (6) Other matters which shall be set out as required by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares are listed.

(Mandatory Provision 32, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 6.02 Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by its Chairman. Where the signatures of other senior officers of the Company are required by the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed, the share certificates shall also be signed by such other senior officers. The share certificate shall take effect upon affixing the securities seal of the Company thereon. The affixture of the seal of the Company on the share certificate shall be authorized by the Board of Directors. The signatures of Chairman or other relevant senior officers of the Company appearing on the share certificates may also be printed.

(Mandatory Provision 33, Supplementary Opinion (1), Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 2(1) of Appendix 3)

Article 6.03 The Company shall keep a share register to contain the following particulars:

- (1) The name, address (residence) and occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (2) The class and quantity of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) The amount paid or payable in respect of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) The share certificate numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) The date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder;
- (6) The date on which each shareholder ceased to be the shareholder.

The share register shall be the sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholding in the Company, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

(Mandatory Provision 34)

Article 6.04 The Company may, pursuant to any understanding or agreement reached between the securities regulatory authority under the State Council and the overseas securities regulatory authority, keep the share register of the overseas listed foreign shares outside China, and entrust its administration to an overseas agency. Such original share register of overseas listed foreign shares listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong shall be kept in Hong Kong, with its administration entrusted to an agency in Hong Kong.

The Company shall keep a copy of the share register of the overseas listed foreign shares at the residence of the Company; the entrusted overseas agency shall ensure that the original and copies of the share register of the overseas listed foreign shares are consistent at all times.

Where the original and copies of the register of overseas listed shareholders are not consistent, the original shall prevail.

(Mandatory Provision 35, Supplementary Opinion (2), Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 1(b) of Appendix 13D

Article 6.05 The Company shall keep a complete share register.

The share register shall include the following counterparts:

- (1) The share register kept at the residence of the Company, other than the counterparts required in Item (2) and (3) of this Article;
- (2) The share register of the overseas listed foreign shares of the Company kept at the place of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares are listed;
- (3) The share register kept in such other place decided by the Board of Directors as required for listing purpose.

(Mandatory Provision 36, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 1(b) of Appendix 13D

Article 6.06 All counterparts of the share register shall not be overlapped. No transfer of shares registered in any counterpart of the share register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other counterpart of the share register.

All paid-up overseas listed foreign shares listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong shall be freely transferable in accordance with the Articles of Association subject to the right of the Board of Directors to refuse recognition of any transfer instrument, without providing any reason for such refusal, unless the following conditions are satisfied:

- (1) Payment to the Company of a fee of HK$2.50 for each transfer instrument, or such smaller amount as may be required by the Board of Directors from time to time (provided that such fee shall not exceed the maximum fee stipulated by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited from time to time) for the registration of any transfer instrument(s) and other document(s) related to the ownership of the shares in question or likely to affect the ownership of those shares;

- (2) The transfer instrument relates only to overseas listed foreign shares listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong;
- (3) Payment of the stamp duty due from the transfer instrument;
- (4) Submission of the relevant share certificates and any other evidence reasonably required by the Board of Directors to prove the transferor's right to transfer the shares;
- (5) If the shares are proposed to be transferred to joint shareholders, the number of joint shareholders shall not exceed four (4);
- (6) The relevant shares are free from all liens of the Company.

The alteration and rectification of each counterpart of the share register shall be conducted in accordance with the laws of the place where it is kept.

In the event of its refusal to register the transfer of shares, the Company shall provide the transferor and the transferee with a written notice for refusing to register the transfer of shares within two months from the date of submitting the formal application for the transfer.

The foregoing transfer may make use of the standard form of transfer prescribed by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong.

(Mandatory Provision 37, Supplementary Opinion (12), Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 1 of Appendix 3)

Article 6.07 No alteration of the share register shall be effected arising from the transfer of shares thirty days prior to the date of the general meeting of shareholders or within five (5) days prior to the date set for the purpose of determining dividend entitlements.

(Mandatory Provision 38)

Article 6.08 For the purposes of convening the general meeting of shareholders, distributing dividends, liquidation and engaging in other activities requiring the confirmation of shareholdings, the Board of Directors shall designate a day to be the date of confirming the shareholdings. Shareholders whose names appear on the share register at the end of that day shall be the shareholders of the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 39)

Article 6.09 Any person who challenges the information set out in the share register and requests to have his (its) name entered in or removed from the share register, may apply to the competent court for rectification of the share register.

(Mandatory Provision 40)

Article 6.10 Any person who is a registered shareholder on the share register or who requests to have his (its) name entered in the share register, may apply to the Company for a new share certificate in respect of such shares (i.e. the “relevant shares”) if his (its) share certificate (i.e. the “original share certificate”) has been lost.

In the event that the shareholders of domestic shares have lost their share certificates and applied for replacement, they shall be dealt with according to the provisions of Article 144 of the Company Law.

In the event that the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares have lost their share certificates and applied for replacement, they may be dealt with according to the laws, stock exchange rules or other relevant requirements of the place where the original share register of overseas listed foreign shares is kept.

In the event that the shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong apply for replacement of their lost share certificates, the issue of their replacement share certificates shall comply with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit the application in the prescribed form of the Company accompanied by the notarial certificate or the statutory declaration stating the grounds upon which the application is made, the circumstances for such loss and the evidence thereof, other details based on the actual situation as the grounds for justifying the application, and that no other person shall be entitled to enter his name on the share register in respect of the relevant shares.

- (2) Prior to the decision to issue the new placement share certificate, the Company has not received any statement from any persons other than the applicant for having his name registered as the shareholder of the relevant shares.
- (3) The Company shall publish the announcement of its intention to issue the new replacement share certificate in the Chinese and English newspapers in Hong Kong as prescribed by the Board of Directors. The announcement shall, at least, be published repeatedly every 30 days for a period of 90 days.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 7(1) of Appendix 3)

- (4) The Company shall, prior to publication of its announcement of its intention to issue the new replacement share certificate, deliver to the stock exchange on which the relevant shares are listed a copy of the announcement intending to be published. The announcement may be published immediately upon receiving the reply from the stock exchange confirming that the announcement has been displayed in its premises. Such announcement shall be displayed for a period of 90 days in the stock exchange.

In the event of having such application made for replacing the share certificates without the consent of the registered shareholder of the relevant shares, the Company shall send to such registered shareholder by post a photocopy of the announcement intending to be published;

- (5) If, upon expiry of the term of 90-day as required by Item (3) and (4) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any other claim to the contrary in respect of the replacement share certificate, the Company may issue immediately the replacement share certificate as requested by the applicant.
- (6) Where the Company issues the replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate, enter such cancellation and such replacement in the share register accordingly.

(7) All expenses related to the cancellation of the original share certificate and the issue of the replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action until reasonable guarantee for such expenses is provided by the applicant.

(Mandatory Provision 41, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 2(2) of Appendix 3)

Article 6.11 Where the Company issues the replacement share certificate in accordance with the Articles of Association, the name of the bona fide purchaser who has been issued the foregoing new share certificate or the shareholder (in case of bona fide purchaser) who is subsequently registered as the owner of such shares, shall not be removed from the share register.

(Mandatory Provision 42)

Article 6.12 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person due to the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issue of the new replacement share certificate, unless the claimant proves that the Company has committed fraud.

(Mandatory Provision 43)

Chapter 7 Rights and Obligations of Shareholders

Article 7.01 A shareholder of the Company is a person who legally holds the shares of the Company and whose name has been recorded in the share register.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and amount of shares held by them. Shareholders holding shares of the same class shall enjoy equal rights and assume same kind of obligations.

Any legal person who is the shareholder of the Company shall have his rights exercised on his behalf by his legal representative or the nominee of his legal representative or (if the shareholder is a recognized clearing house) the representative or agent of the recognized clearing house or his formally appointed proxy

Where two or more persons are the registered joint shareholders of any of the shares, they shall be deemed as the joint shareholders of the relevant shares. However, it shall not be necessary for the Company to register more than four persons as the joint shareholders of any of the shares.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 1(3) of Appendix 3)

In the case of joint shareholders, on the death of any one of such joint shareholders, the survivor(s) shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having the ownership of any such shares, but the Board of Directors may require such evidence of death as it may deem fit for the purpose of making amendments to the particulars in the share register. Only the person whose name stands first in the share register as one of the joint shareholders of any share shall be entitled to the delivery of the certificate related to such share, to receive notices from the Company, to attend and exercise the voting right attached to such share at the general meetings of the Company, and any notice given to such person shall be deemed to have delivered the notice to all the joint shareholders.

(Mandatory Provision 44, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 9 of Appendix 3)

Article 7.02 Shareholders of the ordinary shares of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (1) To collect dividends and other forms of benefit distribution according to the number of shares held by them;
- (2) To attend or appoint proxies to attend the general meeting of shareholders and exercise voting rights;
- (3) To supervise the management of the business operation of the Company and make recommendations or enquiries;
- (4) To transfer shares in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;

- (5) To obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, which shall include:
- (i) The right to obtain a copy of the Articles of Association upon payment of a charge to cover costs;
 - (ii) The right to inspect and copy after payment of reasonable fees:
 - 1. All counterparts of the share register;
 - 2. Personal particulars of Directors, Supervisors, managers and other senior officers including:
 - (a) Present and former name and alias;
 - (b) Principal address (residence);
 - (c) Nationality;
 - (d) Full-time and all other part-time occupations and duties;
 - (e) Identity documents and their numbers.
 - 3. Status of the share capital of the Company;
 - 4. Reports showing the aggregate par value, the number and the highest and lowest price paid for the shares repurchased in respect of each class of shares of the Company since the previous financial year, and all the expenses paid by the Company in this aspect;
 - 5. Minutes of the general meeting of shareholders.
- (6) Upon termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participation in the distribution of the remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the shares held by them;
- (7) Other rights conferred by the Articles of Association and relevant laws and administrative regulations.

The Company shall not exercise any rights to lock up or prejudice otherwise any rights attached to the shares held by any person owning direct or indirect interests, simply because such person has not disclosed his or her interests to the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 45, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 9 & 12 of Appendix 3)

Article 7.03 Shareholders of the ordinary shares of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (1) To comply with the Articles of Association;
- (2) To pay the sum of subscription according to the number of shares subscribed by them and the method of share subscription;
- (3) To assume other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

A shareholder shall not be further liable to the share capital in any way other than those conditions agreed by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

(Mandatory Provision 46)

Article 7.04 Apart from the obligations imposed by laws and administrative regulations, or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed, the controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in a manner damaging the interests of the shareholders in general or some of the shareholders of the Company, in respect of the following matters:

- (1) To dismiss the liability of any Director or Supervisor subject to the best interests of the Company in good faith;
- (2) To approve the expropriation in any form by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of others) of the assets of the Company, including (but not limited to) any opportunities which are advantageous to the Company;
- (3) To approve the expropriation by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of others) of the individual interests of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) any rights for distributions and voting rights, save and except the reorganization of the Company submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval in accordance with Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provision 47)

Article 7.05 As described in the preceding Article, the controlling shareholder refers to a person under any one of the following conditions:

- (1) He alone or acting in concert with others is entitled to elect more than half of the members of the Board of Directors;
- (2) He alone or acting in concert with others is entitled to exercise, or control the exercise of, more than thirty per cent (including 30%) of the voting rights of the Company;
- (3) He alone or acting in concert with others holds more than thirty per cent (including 30%) of the outstanding shares of the Company;
- (4) He alone or acting in concert with others in any other way effectively controls the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 48)

Chapter 8 General Meeting of Shareholders

Article 8.01 The general meeting of shareholders is the organ of power of the Company, and shall exercise its functions and powers according to the laws.

(Mandatory Provision 49)

Article 8.02 The general meeting of shareholders shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) To decide on the business policies and investment plans of the Company;
- (2) To elect and replace Directors and to decide on matters related to the remuneration of Directors;
- (3) To elect and replace those Supervisors who shall be appointed from among the shareholders' representatives, and to decide on matters related to the remuneration of the Supervisors;
- (4) To consider and approve the reports of the Board of Directors;

- (5) To consider and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (6) To consider and approve the annual financial budget proposal and final accounts of the Company;
- (7) To consider and approve the proposal for profit distribution and proposal for making good the losses of the Company;
- (8) To resolve on the increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company;
- (9) To resolve on matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (10) To resolve on the issue of bonds by the Company;
- (11) To resolve on the appointment, removal or non-renewal of the accounting firm by the Company;
- (12) To amend the Articles of Association;
- (13) To consider and approve proposals submitted by the shareholders representing more than five percent (including 5%) of the voting shares of the Company;
- (14) Other matters which are required by the laws and administrative regulations and the Articles of Association to be resolved at the general meeting of shareholders.

(Mandatory Provision 50)

Subject to the provisions of the relevant laws and statutory regulations and the Articles of Association, in the event of the Company issues preferred shares, the general meeting of shareholders shall decide on the rights and obligations of such shares.

The general meeting of shareholders shall be entitled to authorize or entrust the Board of Directors to handle the matters as authorized or entrusted.

Article 8.03 The Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the Director, the Supervisor, the general manager or other senior officers of the Company for handing over to such a person the management of the whole or the substantial part of the business of the Company without the prior approval of shareholders in the general meeting.

(Mandatory Provision 51)

Article 8.04 The general meeting of shareholders shall be classified as the annual general meeting and the extraordinary general meeting. The Board of Directors shall convene the general meeting of shareholders and decide on its date and venue. The annual general meeting shall be convened once a year, and shall take place within six months upon the end of the previous fiscal year.

The Board of Directors shall convene the extraordinary general meeting within two months under one of the following circumstances:

- (1) Where the number of Directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or is less than two-thirds of the number required by the Articles of Association;
- (2) Where the accrued losses of the Company amount to one-third of its total share capital;
- (3) Where shareholders holding more than ten per cent (including 10%) of the voting shares outstanding of the Company request in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting;
- (4) Where the Board of Directors considers it necessary or the Supervisory Committee proposes to convene such a meeting;
- (5) Where more than two independent Directors propose to convene such a meeting.

(Mandatory Provision 52, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 8.05 Where the Company convenes the general meeting of shareholders, the written notice shall be given, forty-five days in advance, to inform all shareholders whose names appear in the share register of the matters proposed to be considered at the meeting and the date and venue of the meeting. Any shareholder intending to attend the general meeting of shareholders shall serve the Company, twenty days before the date of the meeting, with the written reply stating his intention to attend the meeting.

When calculating the period of giving the notice, it shall not include the date of the meeting and the date of sending the notice. In respect of the notice sent under this Article, its date of issue shall be the date on which the Company or the share registrar appointed by the Company has the relevant notice delivered to the post office.

(Mandatory Provision 53)

Article 8.06 In respect of the annual general meeting convened by the Company, the shareholders holding more than five percent (including 5%) of the total voting shares of the Company are entitled to propose to the Company any new resolutions in writing, provided such resolution shall be submitted to the Company at least ninety days before convening the annual general meeting. The Company shall include, in the agenda of such meeting, those proposed matters which are within the terms of reference of the general meeting.

(Mandatory Provision 54, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 8.07 Based on the written replies received twenty days before convening the general meeting of shareholders, the Company shall calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders intending to attend the meeting. Where the number of voting shares represented by those shareholders intending to attend the meeting comprises more than half of the total voting shares of the Company, then, the Company may convene the general meeting of shareholders. If not, the Company shall, within five days, inform the shareholders again of the matters to be considered, as well as the date and the venue of the meeting by way of announcement in the newspaper. After making the announcement, the Company may convene the general meeting of shareholders.

An extraordinary general meeting shall not decide on matters which are not specified in the notice.

(Mandatory Provision 55, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 7(1) of Appendix 3)

Article 8.08 To comply with the following requirements, the notice of the meeting of shareholders shall:

- (1) Be made in writing;
- (2) Specify the venue, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) State the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (4) Provide necessary information and explanation for the shareholders to make sensible decision on the matters to be discussed. This principle shall include (but not limited to) the provision of specific conditions and contract (if any) of the proposed transaction in contemplation, in the event of merger, share repurchase, restructuring share capital, or other reorganization initiated by the Company, and a due account of the cause and effect of such a proposal shall be given;
- (5) Disclose the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any Director, Supervisor, manager or other senior officers in the matters to be discussed; in the event that the impact of the matters to be discussed on such Director, Supervisor, manager or other senior officers in the capacity as the shareholder is different from the impact on the other shareholders of the same class, such difference shall be specified;
- (6) Contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting for approval;
- (7) Contain the express statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on his behalf and that such a proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (8) Set out the date and venue for lodging a proxy form in respect of the meeting;

(Mandatory Provision 56)

Article 8.09 The notice of a general meeting of shareholders shall be served on each shareholder whose name appears in the share register on the date of confirming the shareholders in respect of the meeting, (whether or not entitled to vote thereat), by personal delivery or prepaid mail to the shareholder at his address, as shown in the share register. For the shareholders of domestic shares, the notices of general meetings of shareholders may be given by way of announcement.

The announcement referred to in the preceding clause shall be published in one or more newspapers specified by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council within the period of forty-five to fifty days prior to the meeting. Once the announcement has been published, all shareholders of the domestic shares shall be deemed to have received notice of the relevant meeting of shareholders.

The Company shall give the notice, with sufficient time for the foreign shareholders whose registered addresses are in Hong Kong to exercise their rights in advance or act in accordance with the terms in the notice.

(Mandatory Provision 57, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 7(1), (2) & (3) of Appendix 3)

Article 8.10 Where the notice of a meeting is not delivered to, because of accidental omission, or the non-receipt of the notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive the notice, it shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

(Mandatory Provision 58)

Article 8.11 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting of shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder or shareholders) as his proxy (proxies) to attend and vote on his behalf. A proxy so appointed shall exercise the following rights as entrusted by that shareholder:

(i) To have the right to speak at the general meeting of shareholders;

(ii) To exercise the voting rights.

Where that shareholder is a recognized clearing house defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong) or its nominee, it may authorize such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative (or representatives) at any general meeting of shareholders or any class meeting of shareholders, provided that if more than one person is so authorized, the power of attorney shall set out the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorized. The person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same power on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or its nominees) as if such person is the individual shareholder of the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 59, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 8.12 A shareholder shall appoint his proxy in writing under the hand of the shareholder or his attorney authorized in writing; in the event that the shareholder is a legal person, it shall be under the seal of the legal person or under the hand of its Director or duly authorized attorney or officer. The proxy form shall specify the number of shares which the proxy shall represent. In the event of appointing several proxies, the proxy form shall specify the number of shares which each of the proxies shall represent.

(Mandatory Provision 60, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 11(2) of Appendix 3)

Article 8.13 The proxy form for appointing a proxy to vote shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at some other place specified for that purpose in the notice for convening the meeting no later than twenty-four hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or twenty-four hours before the time specified for the voting. Where such a proxy form is signed by a person under power of attorney on behalf of the principal, that power of attorney or other authorization documents shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney and other authorization documents shall, together with the proxy form appointing the proxy, be deposited at the residence of the Company or at some other place specified for that purpose in the notice for convening the meeting. In the event that the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or a person authorized by way of the resolution adopted by its Board of Directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend a general meeting of shareholders of the Company on its behalf.

(Mandatory Provision 61)

Article 8.14 Any kind of proxy form given to shareholders by the Board of Directors of the Company for appointing the proxy shall permit the shareholders to freely instruct the proxy separately to vote in favour of or against each resolution dealing with business to be transacted at the meeting. Such proxy form should contain a remark that in default of instructions by the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

(Mandatory Provision 62, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 11(1) of Appendix 3)

Article 8.15 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an proxy form shall remain valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authorization under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of relevant shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that no notice in writing of such death, loss of capacity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the relevant meeting at which the proxy is used.

(Mandatory Provision 63)

Article 8.16 In the event that the individual shareholder appoints his proxy to attend the general meeting of shareholders, the proxy shall present the proxy form authorized by the shareholder and the evidence of his own identity. In the event that the shareholder who is a legal person appoints its representative to attend the general meeting of shareholders, the representative shall present the evidence of his own identity and the evidence of the legal representative (except the recognized clearing house) or the notarized copy of the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors or other decision-making body of the shareholder who is a legal person for the appointment of the representative.

(Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 8.17 Resolutions of a general meeting of shareholders can either be ordinary resolutions or special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of a general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by more than half of the total voting shares of the Company being held by the shareholders (including proxies) who are present at the meeting.

A special resolution of a general meeting of shareholders shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the total voting shares of the Company being held by the shareholders (including proxies) who are present at the meeting.

Where the Company is aware that the rules governing the listing of securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong require any shareholder to abandon his voting right on a specific resolution, or require any shareholder to either vote for or against a specific resolution only, any vote of the shareholder or his representative in violation of the relevant requirement or restriction shall not be included.

At the general meeting of shareholders, the chairman of the meeting shall propose separate resolutions in respect of each independent matter.

(Mandatory Provision 64, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 14 of Appendix 3 and Section E.1.1 of Appendix 14)

Article 8.18 The shareholder (including the proxy) shall exercise his voting right in accordance with his number of voting shares. Each share shall have one vote.

(Mandatory Provision 65)

Article 8.19 The votes of the shareholders shall be taken by way of poll at the general meeting of shareholders.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 13.39(4))

Article 8.20 In the event the resolution proposed involves election of the chairman or termination of the meeting, the voting shall be made immediately by way of poll. As for the resolutions concerning other matters, the chairman shall decide when the voting shall be made, and may continue to proceed with the meeting and discuss other matters, whereas the outcome of such voting shall still be deemed to have passed the said resolution at the meeting.

(Mandatory Provision 67)

Article 8.21 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

(Mandatory Provision 68)

Article 8.22 In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

(Mandatory Provision 69)

Article 8.23 The following matters shall be adopted by way of ordinary resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders:

- (1) The reports of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee;
- (2) Profit distribution proposals and proposals for making good the losses prepared by the Board of Directors;
- (3) Remuneration and method of payment for the Supervisory Committee;
- (4) The annual financial budget, the report on final accounts, the balance sheet, the income statement and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) Matters other than those which are required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association to be adopted by way of special resolutions.

(Mandatory Provision 70)

Article 8.24 The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders;

- (1) The increase or decrease of the share capital and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities by the Company;
- (2) The issue of bonds by the Company;
- (3) The division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (4) The amendment of the Articles of Association of the Company;
- (5) Other matters which, according to the ordinary resolution adopted at the general meeting of shareholders, may have a significant impact on the Company and require adoption by way of the special resolution.

(Mandatory Provision 71)

Article 8.25 Shareholders seeking to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting of shareholders shall proceed in accordance with the following procedure:

- (1) Two or more shareholders holding more than one-tenth (including 10%) of the voting shares at the meeting proposed to be held may, by signing one written request or several counterparts of same stating the subject matter of the meeting, require the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders or a class meeting of shareholders. Upon receipt of the foregoing written request(s), the Board of Directors shall proceed to do so as soon as possible accordingly. The foregoing number of voting shares referred to shall be calculated as at the date of the delivery of the written request(s);

- (2) If the Board of Directors fails to issue a notice of convening such a meeting within thirty days from the date of the receipt of the foregoing written request(s), the shareholders who have made the request may themselves convene such a meeting in a procedure as far as possible same as that of such meetings to be convened by the Board of Directors, within four months from the date of receipt of such request(s) by the board.

Any reasonable expenses incurred by the shareholders for convening and holding the meeting by reason of the failure of the Board of Directors to duly convene a meeting according to the foregoing request for holding the meeting shall be borne by the Company and shall be set off against any sums owed to the Directors in default by the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 72)

Article 8.26 A general meeting of shareholders shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors who shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors cannot attend the meeting for any reasons, the Chairman of the Board of Directors may designate a Director of the Company to convene and preside at the meeting as chairman on his behalf. If a chairman has not been designated, the shareholders attending the meeting may elect a person to act as the chairman. If for any reasons the shareholders cannot elect a chairman, the shareholder (including his proxy) holding the greatest number of voting shares present at the meeting shall act as the chairman.

(Mandatory Provision 73)

Article 8.27 The chairman of a general meeting of shareholders shall be responsible for deciding whether or not a resolution has been adopted. His decision shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

(Mandatory Provision 74)

Article 8.28 Where the chairman of a general meeting of shareholders has doubt about the outcome of the resolution tabled for voting, he may count the number of votes casted. If no counting is made by the chairman of the meeting, any shareholder who queries the outcome as announced by the chairman shall have the right to demand a counting of the votes immediately. The chairman shall forthwith conduct a counting of the votes as demanded.

(Mandatory Provision 75)

Article 8.29 Where a counting of the votes has been conducted at a general meeting of shareholders, the outcome shall be recorded in the minutes.

The minutes for the decision made on the matters discussed at the general meeting of shareholders shall be recorded by the secretary and signed by the Directors who attended the meeting. The minutes together with the attendance record signed by those shareholders attending the meeting and the powers of attorney of those attending the meeting by their proxies shall be kept at the residence of the Company.

(Mandatory Provision 76, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 8.30 Photocopies of the minutes shall be available for inspection during office hours of the Company by any shareholder without charge. Where a shareholder demands from the Company a photocopy of such minutes, the Company shall send a copy to the shareholder within seven days upon receiving a reasonable fee.

(Mandatory Provision 77)

Chapter 9 Special Voting Procedures for Class Shareholders

Article 9.01 Shareholders of various classes of shares are referred to as class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy the rights and assume the obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

(Mandatory Provision 78)

Article 9.02 Any proposal by the Company to vary or abrogate the rights conferred on any class shareholders shall be approved by a special resolution at the general meeting of shareholders and by the class shareholders affected at the separate meeting(s) convened in accordance with Articles 9.04 to 9.08, before implementation of such proposal accordingly.

(Mandatory Provision 79)

Article 9.03 The rights of class shareholders shall be deemed to be varied or abrogated under the following circumstances:

- (1) The increase or decrease of the number of shares of such class, or the increase or decrease of the number of shares of a class entitled to voting rights or distribution rights or other privileges equivalent or superior to the shares of such class;
- (2) The conversion of all or a part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, or the conversion of all or a part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class or conferring such rights of conversion;
- (3) The removal or reduction of the rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends entitled to the shares of such class;
- (4) The reduction or removal of the right of having dividend preference or having liquidation preference in the property distribution entitled to the shares of such class;
- (5) The increase, removal or decrease of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights or pre-emptive placement rights or rights to acquire securities of the Company entitled to the shares of such class;
- (6) The removal or decrease of the rights to receive the sums payable by the Company in particular currencies entitled to the shares of such class;
- (7) The creation of a new class of shares entitled to the voting rights or distribution rights or other privileges equivalent or superior to the shares of such class;
- (8) The imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer or ownership of the shares of such class;
- (9) The issue of share subscription rights or share conversion right for the shares of such class or another class;
- (10) The increase of the rights or privileges of the shares of another class;
- (11) The proposed restructuring of the Company which will result in the shareholders of different classes bearing a disproportionate burden of such restructuring;

(12) The variation or abrogation of the provisions of this chapter.

(Mandatory Provision 80)

Article 9.04 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at general meetings of shareholders, shall have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning Articles 9.03(2) to (8) and (11) to (12), but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at class meetings.

The interested shareholder(s) mentioned in the preceding clause shall have the following meanings:

- (1) In the case of a repurchase by a general offer made to all shareholders in the same proportions or through the public offer on a stock exchange under Article 4.04 of the Articles of Association, an “Interested Shareholder” refers to a Controlling Shareholder defined by Article 7.05 of the Articles of Association;
- (2) In the case of a repurchase of shares under the agreement made other than on the stock exchange under Article 4.04 of the Articles of Association, an “Interested Shareholder” refers to a shareholder to which the agreement relates;
- (3) In the case of a proposed restructuring of the Company, an “Interested Shareholder” refers to a shareholder within a class who bears less than a proportionate burden imposed on that class under the proposed restructuring or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the interest of shareholders of that class.

(Mandatory Provision 81)

Article 9.05 The resolutions of the class meeting of shareholders shall only be adopted by the shareholders attending the meeting with more than two-thirds of the voting shares according to Article 9.04.

(Mandatory Provision 82)

Article 9.06 Where the Company convenes a class meeting of shareholders, it shall, issue written notices to notify the respective shareholders of that class whose names appear in the share register of the items proposed to be considered and the date and venue of the meeting forty-five days before that meeting. Shareholders intending to attend the class meeting shall send written replies to confirm their attendance and such replies shall be delivered to the Company twenty days before the meeting.

Where the number of voting shares represented by those shareholders intending to attend the meeting is more than half of the total number of voting shares of that class, the Company may convene the class meeting. If not, the Company shall, within five days, inform the shareholders again of the items proposed to be considered and the date and venue of the meeting by way of an announcement. After making such notification by way of announcement, the class meeting of shareholders may be convened by the Company.

The quorum formed by the holders holding at least one-third of any class of shares issued is required to convene the respective class meeting of shareholders (except the adjourned meeting) for the purpose of considering the amendment of the rights of that class of shares.

(Mandatory Provision 83, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 6(2) of Appendix 3)

Article 9.07 Notices of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Meetings of any class of shareholders shall be held according to the procedure same as that of general meetings of shareholders as far as possible. The procedure in the Articles of Association related to general meetings of shareholders shall apply to any meeting of a class of shareholders.

(Mandatory Provision 84)

Article 9.08 Apart from the shareholders of other classes of shares, the shareholders of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares are deemed to be shareholders of different classes. The special procedure of the voting by class shareholders shall not be applicable to the following circumstances:

- (1) Where the Company issues, either separately or concurrently, domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares in numbers not exceeding twenty per cent of the number of issued domestic shares and issued overseas listed foreign shares respectively at the interval of every twelve months as approved by way of special resolution at a general meeting of

- shareholders; or
- (2) Where the plan of the Company for issuing domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares upon its establishment is implemented within fifteen months from the date of approval by the China Securities Regulatory Commission.

(Mandatory Provision 85, Supplementary Opinion (3), Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 1(f) of Appendix 13D)

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 10.01 The Company shall establish the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall comprise seven Directors, including more than four independent non-executive Directors. Independent non-executive Directors refer to Directors who do not hold any position within the Company. The Board of Directors shall have one Chairman and one Vice-Chairman. The Directors shall handle the matters authorized by the Board of Directors.

(Mandatory Provision 86)

Article 10.02 The Board of Directors shall be independent of the controlling shareholder entity of the Company and shall not be affected by the controlling shareholder entity. No more than two senior management members of the organ of the controlling shareholder (the Chairman and the Executive Directors) shall take up the roles of the Chairman and the Executive Director of the Company concurrently. The Directors shall be elected at the general meeting of shareholders and serve a term of three years. Upon expiry of the term, a Director shall be eligible for re-election and serving consecutive terms but the independent non-executive Directors shall not serve consecutive terms exceeding six years. Each of the Directors (including the Directors serving specified term) shall retire by rotation at least once every three years.

A notice in writing of the intention to propose a candidate for election as a Director and a notice in writing by that candidate of his willingness to be elected shall be given to the Company at least seven days in advance. The period of the delivery of the foregoing notices in writing shall be counted from the next day when a notice for the meeting on such election is sent by post and until the date not later than the end of the period of seven days prior to the date of holding the meeting.

The Chairman and the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the Directors. The Chairman and the Vice-Chairman shall serve a term of three years, and may serve consecutive terms if re-elected.

Any person appointed by the Board of Directors to fill the casual vacancy or to take up the role of a new Director shall serve the term until the date of holding the next annual general meeting of shareholders. Such persons shall be eligible for re-election and may serve consecutive terms.

Subject to the provisions of relevant laws and administrative regulations, the general meeting of shareholders may remove any Director by special resolution prior to the expiry of the term of such Director (but without prejudice to any claim under any contract).

Directors are not required to hold shares in the Company.

Each of the Directors shall ensure to spend sufficient time and efforts to handle the affairs of the Company. Otherwise, they shall not accept appointment of same.

The non-executive Directors shall have sufficient time as well as necessary knowledge and capability to perform their duties. The Company shall provide necessary information when the non-executive Directors perform their duties. In particular, the independent (non-executive) Directors may report directly to the general meeting of shareholders, the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and other relevant authorities.

Apart from the non-executive Directors, other Directors may take up the roles of other senior management members of the Company other than the Supervisors concurrently.

(Mandatory Provision 87, Supplementary Opinion (4), Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 4(2), (4) & (5) of Appendix 3)

Article 10.03 The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the general meeting of shareholders and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) To be responsible for convening general meetings of shareholders and to report on its work at the general meeting of shareholders;
- (2) To implement resolutions adopted at the general meeting of shareholders;
- (3) To decide on the operation plans and investment proposals of the Company;
- (4) To formulate the annual financial budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (5) To formulate the profit distribution proposals and proposals for making good the losses of the Company;
- (6) To formulate proposals for the increase or decrease of the registered capital of the Company and proposals for the issue of bonds of the Company;
- (7) To prepare the proposals for the merger, division or dissolution of the Company;
- (8) To decide on the establishment of the internal management organization of the Company;
- (9) To appoint or remove the manager of the Company, and based on the nomination of the manager, to appoint or remove the deputy manager and the chief financial officer of the Company and to decide on their remuneration;
- (10) To formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (11) To formulate proposals for any amendment of the Articles of Association;
- (12) Apart from the matters required by the Company Law and the Articles of Association to be resolved at the general meeting of shareholders, to decide on other affairs and administrative affairs and sign other agreements; and
- (13) Other functions and powers as conferred in the general meeting of shareholder or the Articles of Association.

Apart from item (6), (7), and (11) which require the affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of the Directors, resolutions on any other items may be approved by more than half of the Directors for the resolutions made by the Board of Directors in the preceding clause.

(Mandatory Provision 88, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 10.03A The duties of the non-executive directors shall include but not limited to the following:

- (1) To participate in the Board meetings of the Company, and provide independent opinions regarding strategies, policies, performance of the Company, accountability, resources, major appointments and the code of practice;
- (2) To take the lead in guidance in the event of potential conflict of interests;
- (3) To be the member of the audit committee, the remuneration and review committee and other governing committees upon invitation; and
- (4) To scrutinize the performance of the Company to see whether it has fulfilled the established corporate goals and purposes and monitor and report on the performance of the Company.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section A.5.2 of Appendix 14)

Article 10.04 Where there is a disposal of fixed assets by the Board of Directors and the aggregate of the expected value of the consideration for the proposed disposal and the value of the consideration for any disposition of fixed assets made in the four months immediately preceding the proposed disposition exceeds thirty-three per cent of the value of the fixed assets as shown in the latest balance sheet placed before the shareholders in the general meeting of shareholder, the Board of Directors shall not dispose or agree to dispose of the fixed assets without the prior approval at the general meeting of shareholders.

In this Article, disposal of fixed assets shall include an act involving transfer of an interest in property other than the provision of security by fixed assets.

The validity of a disposal of fixed assets by the Company shall not be affected by a breach of the first clause of this Article.

(Mandatory Provision 89)

Article 10.05 The chairman of the Board of Directors shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) To preside at general meetings of shareholders and to convene and preside at meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (2) To examine the implementation of resolutions of the Board of Directors;

- (3) To sign securities issued by the Company;
- (4) Other functions and powers conferred by the Board of Directors.

In the event that the Chairman is unable to perform his functions and power, the Chairman may designate the Vice-Chairman to perform same on his behalf.

(Mandatory Provision 90)

Article 10.06 Board meetings shall be held regularly at least four times every year. A Board meeting shall be convened by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and a relevant notice shall be given to all Directors fourteen days before the meeting date. In case of urgent matters, an extraordinary Board meeting may be proposed by more than one third of the Directors, or more than half of the Independent Non-executive Directors, or the manager of the Company, such meeting shall not be subject to the requirement for the notice of the meeting specified in Article 10.07.

In principle, the Board meeting shall be held at the residence of the Company, but may be held in other places in China as resolved by the Board of Directors. The Board meeting shall be conducted in Chinese. The interpreter may be present to provide simultaneous Chinese and English interpretation if necessary.

The abovementioned regular Board meetings shall not include approval obtained from the Board of Directors by way of circulating written resolutions to be passed..

(Mandatory Provision 91, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section A1.1 of Appendix 14)

Article 10.07 The method and time required for giving the notice to convene the meeting by the Board of Directors are as follows:

- (1) In the event that the Board of Directors has stipulated in advance the date and place of the regular Board meeting, it shall not require the issue of notices to convene the meeting.
- (2) In the event that the Board of Directors has not stipulated in advance the date and place of the Board meeting, the Chairman shall inform the Directors at least fourteen days and at most thirty days in advance by sending a notice by means of telex, cable, facsimile, speed post or registered mail or courier, unless specified otherwise by Article 10.06.

- (3) The notice shall be in Chinese and its English version may be attached if necessary and shall include the agenda and relevant documents for the meeting. Any of the Directors may waive the right of obtaining the notice from the Board of Directors for the Board meeting.

For all significant matters requiring the decision-making of the Board of Directors, the time required to inform all Directors shall comply with the stipulation in this Article, sufficient information shall also be provided and the meeting shall be conducted strictly in accordance with stipulated procedure. When more than one quarter of the Directors considers that there is insufficient information or that arguments proposed are imprecise, they may jointly propose that the Board meeting be postponed or that some of the matters to be discussed at the Board meeting be discussed at a later time. Under such circumstances, the Board of Directors shall accept the proposal.

If a director having attended the meeting and has not raised objection for non-receipt of notice in advance before or during the meeting, he shall be deemed to have received the notice of the meeting.

The regular or extraordinary Board meeting may be held in the form of telephone conference or by way of similar communication equipment so long as all Directors participating in such meeting can hear and communicate with one another clearly, and all such Directors shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

(Mandatory Provision 92, Comments of Hong Kong Registrars Limited)

Article 10.07A After discussion in advance, the Board of Directors may seek independent professional advice in appropriate situation. The costs shall be paid by the Company. The Board of Directors may resolve to provide independent professional advice for Directors separately in order to assist the relevant Director in performing his responsibilities to the Company.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section A1.7 of Appendix 14)

Article 10.08 The Board meeting shall only be held when more than one half of the Directors are present (including the Director having been appointed by the other Director by proxy in writing to attend the board meeting on his behalf according to Article 10.09).

Each Director shall have one vote. The resolution of the Board of Directors shall be passed by more than half of all Directors. In the event of having equal votes for or against the motion, the Chairman shall be entitled to cast an additional vote.

If the Board of Directors considers that a major shareholder or a Director has a material conflict of interest in a matter to be considered by the Board, the matter shall not be dealt with by way of circulation of the Board resolutions or handled by the Board committee (except the committee set up particularly for this purpose as resolved in the Board meeting). A Board meeting shall be held in such case, with the presence of the Independent Non-executive Directors, who and whose associates, have no material interest in the transaction.

Save as otherwise approved by the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited or specified by the Articles of Association, a Director shall neither vote (nor be counted in the quorum) on any resolution of the Board in respect of any contract or arrangement or other proposals in which he himself, or any of his associate(s) (within the meaning of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong), is to his knowledge materially interested. In this Article, the Director or his associate entitled to “material interest” shall mean that the Director or his associate owns 5% or more of the interest in such contract, transaction or arrangement.

(Mandatory Provision 93, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 4(1) of Appendix 3, Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section A1.8 of Appendix 14)

Article 10.09 The Board meeting shall be attended by the Directors in person. If a Director is unable to attend for any reason, he may entrust another Director in writing to represent him/her at the Board meeting. The relevant proxy shall state the scope of authorization.

A Director who attends a Board meeting on behalf of another Director shall exercise the rights of a Director within the given scope of authorization in the proxy. A Director who fails to attend a particular Board meeting and who has not appointed a representative to do so shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights in respect of that meeting.

Costs incurred by the Directors in attending the Board meeting shall be borne by the Company. Such costs shall include travel expenses for traveling between the residence of the Directors and the location where the meeting is held, as well as the expenses for meals and accommodation during the period of the meeting. The sundry expenses including the rental for the venue of the meeting and the local traffic expenses shall be paid by the Company as well.

(Mandatory Provision 94)

Article 10.10 In lieu of holding a Board meeting, a written resolution may be adopted by the Board of Directors provided that such resolution shall be sent by courier, post, cable or facsimile to all Directors and be affirmatively signed and adopted by the number of Directors necessary to form a quorum, which shall be sent by the foregoing means to the Company Secretary and become the resolution adopted by the Board of Directors, without convening a Board meeting.

Article 10.11 The Board of Directors shall prepare minutes of the decisions on the matters discussed in the board meetings. The opinions expressed by the Independent (Non-executive) Director shall be clearly recorded in the resolutions of the Board of Directors. The minutes of each Board meeting shall be provided to all Directors as soon as possible for their review. Any Director intending to make amendment and supplement shall, within one week upon receipt of the minutes, report to the Chairman in writing on the comments. After finalization of the minutes, the Directors attending the meeting and the person taking the minutes shall sign their names on the minutes of that meeting. The minutes of the Board meeting shall be kept at the residence of the Company in China. Each of the Directors shall be provided with a complete copy as soon as possible.

The Directors shall be responsible for the resolutions of the Board of Directors. Where a resolution of the Board of Directors is in violation of the laws and administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, thereby causing serious losses to the Company, the Directors who took part in such resolution shall be liable to compensate the Company. However, if a Director is able to prove that he has expressed his opposition to such resolution put to the vote, and such opposition has been recorded in the minutes of the meeting, that Director may be relieved of such liability.

(Mandatory Provision 95)

The Board of Directors may set up a committee or a working team consisting of two or more of the Directors at times, and authorize such committee or working team to exercise certain powers, duties and discretionary handling rights of the Board of Directors. The relevant committee and the working team shall act within the scope as authorized by the Board of Directors, and abide with the rules as may be concluded by the Board of Directors at times. The Board of Directors may also resolve to dismiss the relevant committee or working team or amend the scope of its authorization. Except when restricted by the laws or regulatory control, the relevant committee or working team shall report to the Board of Directors on its decision or proposal.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section D.2.2 of Appendix 14)

The quorum of the Board committee or working team shall be the higher of two members of such committee or working team or more than half of the members. The applicable stipulations of the Articles of Association shall be replaced by the Board of Directors in accordance with the rules as mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

Except when specified otherwise by the Board of Directors, the manager (not acting as the director concurrently) may attend the Board meeting and be entitled to receive the notice and related documents of such meetings. However, unless the manager is also a director, the manager shall not be entitled to vote in the Board meeting.

Chapter 11 Company Secretary to the Board

Article 11.01 The Company shall have 1 to 2 Company Secretaries appointed by the Board of Directors. The Company Secretary to the Board shall be the senior management, who bears the obligations of senior management of the Company as required by laws, regulations and the Article of Association, and is entitled to corresponding job duties and obtains corresponding remuneration.

(Mandatory Provision 96)

Article 11.02 The Company Secretary to the Board shall principally assist the directors in handling the daily routine tasks of the Board, continuously provide the Directors with and remind the Directors of the regulations, policies and requirements as demanded by domestic and overseas supervisory bodies in relation to the operation of the Company, and ensure that the directors understand the same accordingly, and assist the Directors and the manager in actually performing the domestic and overseas laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Association and other relevant stipulations, when exercising their duties and responsibilities. The Company Secretary shall be responsible for the relevant organization and preparation of the documents for the Board of Directors and the general meeting of Shareholders, prepare the minutes of the meeting, ensure the decision-making process of the meeting is in compliance with the statutory procedure, understand the implementation of the resolutions of the Board of Directors, take charge of organizing and coordinating information disclosure, coordinate the relationship with the investors, enhance the transparency of the Company, take part in organizing capital market financing, handle the relationship with the intermediaries, regulatory departments and the mass media, and build up good public relations.

In the event of having two Company Secretaries to the Board, these two Company Secretaries shall take charge of the affairs of the Company in China and Hong Kong respectively. However, either one of them shall be entitled to independently exercise all the powers of the Company Secretary to the Board. The Company Secretary taking charge of the affairs in China shall principally ensure the keeping of complete documentation and record of the Company, the preparation and submission of the reports and documents according to the laws as required by the regulatory authorities in China, the proper establishment of the share register of the Company, and the rights to obtain the records and documents related to the Company on timely basis.

The Company Secretary taking charge of the affairs in Hong Kong shall, in line with the instruction of the Board, principally report and submit the relevant information and documents to the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong according to the Listing Rules of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong, prepare the various documents for the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board meeting, and submit to the Companies Registry in Hong Kong the various documents related to the Company.

In the event of having only one Company Secretary to the Board, the Company

Secretary shall bear all the responsibilities of the foregoing Company Secretaries taking charge of the affairs in China and Hong Kong.

(Mandatory Provision 97)

Article 11.03 The Company Secretary to the Board shall be the natural person possessing the professional knowledge, knowledge of relevant laws and regulations and relevant working experience of listing out of China, and shall, in principle, speak and write the foreign language, be familiar with the operation situation of the Company and the knowledge of the industry, possess the relevant knowledge required for performing its duties, be of good personal characters and occupational ethics, with stronger capability of handling public relations and coordination. In the event of having two Company Secretaries to the Board, one of them shall comply with the requirements of the regulatory authorities out of China and the relevant listing rules.

Article 11.04 The natural person in one of the situations stipulated in Article 14.01 of the Articles of Association shall not take up the post of the Company Secretary to the Board.

Article 11.05 The Company Secretary to the Board shall, in principle, be a professional but the Director or other senior management of the Company may take up the post of the Company Secretary concurrently. In the event that the Director or other senior management of the Company takes up the post of the Company Secretary concurrently, he/she shall ensure that he/she has the sufficient energy and time to take up the duties of the Company Secretary to the Board. The general manager (not including part-time officer) and the chief finance officer of the Company shall not be the Company Secretary to the Board concurrently. The accountant of the accounting firm appointed by the Company shall not be the Company Secretary to the Board concurrently.

In the event that a Director takes up the post of the Company Secretary to the Board concurrently, whenever any particular act shall be done by the Director and the Company Secretary to The Board respectively, the Director taking up the post of Company Secretary to the Board concurrently shall not do such act in both capacities.

(Mandatory Provision 98)

Article 11.06 Terms of Reference of the Company Secretary to the Board

Any payments of any director or supervisor failing to comply with this clause shall be attributed to the seller of its shares at the Company following the above-said offer. Such director or supervisor shall pay any expenses incurred during the proportional distribution of such payments. Such expenses shall not be paid out of such payments.

(Mandatory Provision 129)

Chapter 15 Finance and Accounting System and Appropriation of Profits

Article 15.01 The Company's financial and accounting systems are established based on applicable laws, administrative rules and regulations, and the provisions of the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of China formulated by the financial authority under the State Council.

(Mandatory Provision 130)

Article 15.02 A calendar year is the fiscal year of the Company, commencing on each 1st day of January and ending on each 31st day of December.

The Company uses RMB for accounting unit. Accounts are prepared in Chinese.

Financial statements shall be prepared at the end of each fiscal year. Such statement is subject to examination and verification.

(Mandatory Provision 131)

Article 15.03 At each annual meeting, the Board of Directors shall submit the financial statements to shareholders which are mandatory under applicable laws, administrative rules and regulations, and the provisions of the standards promulgated by the local government and competent authorities. Such statement is subject to an audit by appointed CPA.

(Mandatory Provision 132)

Article 15.04 Such statements shall be made available to shareholders at the Company twenty days before the general meeting. Each shareholder shall have access to the financial statement mentioned in this chapter.

The Company shall, at least twenty-one days before the general meeting, deliver such statements (including the annexes which are mandatory under applicable laws) and the directors' report to any of the foreign shareholders using a postage-paid mail service, based on the registered address in the register of shareholders.

(Mandatory Provision 133, Supplementary Opinion (7), Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 5 of Appendix 3)

Article 15.05 Financial statements shall, in addition to be prepared by the Company in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of China and applicable laws, rules and regulations in China, be also prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles of the international community or the overseas places where the shares are listed. Any material discrepancies in the two sets of statements prepared based on above-mentioned principles shall be explained in the explanatory notes attached. The lower of the after-tax profits of a specific fiscal year stated in the statements prepared based on the above-mentioned principles shall prevail in the allocation of such profits.

(Mandatory Provision 134)

Article 15.06 Quarterly reports, interim reports, annual reports or finance information made public or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of China and applicable laws, rules and regulations in China, in addition, they shall also be prepared in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles of international community or the overseas places where the shares are listed.

(Mandatory Provision 135)

Article 15.07 At least twenty-one days before the annual general meeting and within four months upon the maturity of a specific fiscal year, shareholders shall be delivered with the directors' report, annual accounts and accountants' report on such accounts. For the first six months of each fiscal year, an interim report shall be prepared by the Company in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. Such interim report shall be made public within sixty days upon the expiry of such period.

(Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited - Section 13.46(2) & 13.48, Mandatory Provision 136)
